

Saint Raphael's Episcopal Church

and

The Church of the Resurrection, Lexington invite you to something different...

Joining in with God's Life for the World

We invite all children ages 5 – 16 to celebrate the opening of Tobit's Trace, to connect nature to faith, the Eucharist, and the Bible with
Rev. Helen Van Koevering

What's Happening at VBS 2019?

Learning in Tobit's Trace

- Dr Tom Kimmerer will be teaching about nature & tree planting
- Come plant trees with us in Tobit's trace

Healthy Living & Nature

- Nancy Cristiano Matthews is connecting fun with veggies, healthy eating, and the (re)use of plastics
- Discover composting and making worm farms with Carol Summers

Music & Crafts

- Learn about music and its ability to heal with Chris Young
- Bonnie Conaway will put your creativity and artistry to the test
- Enjoy story-telling with Carl Fosnaugh IV

Lunch provided daily

Deacon Paula Ott will lead children and adults in a Jewish Seder meal on the last day

August 5-9, 2019
